As a Realtor, Mary's expertise in real estate goes beyond helping her clients sell or buy a home. She is known for her tenacious work ethic, discretion and focus on protecting the interests of her clients. She excels in building relationships, managing complex transactions and helping her clients by identifying their needs. Mary considers her role as an agent, a tremendous responsibility, which she does not take it lightly, and continually works to satisfy her clients' needs and expectations.

She enjoys matching buyers with the perfect home and lifestyle to fit their needs. For sellers, she leverages her creative eye for design to present their homes in the most attractive light possible, along with the knowledge she's acquired from her extensive real estate training, designations and certifications, like the 2023, 2024, 2025 and 2026 Five Star Real Estate Agent.

Mary has a genuine love and passion for working with people and assisting them in their major life decisions. She develops a service-oriented approach that is based on the importance of being responsive, available and willing to go above and beyond for client's satisfaction.

When she isn't busy helping her clients, Mary enjoys spending time with her husband, her grandchildren and her dog Chanel, volunteering and sponsoring local charities and serving the community.

"Everything relates to trust, and respect is the foundation of trust."
